

Interpret That Idiom! Rule Sheet

A game of nonsense, creativity, and wildly incorrect guesses.

Goal

Be the first player to reach 21 points by creating the most convincing and creative phrases and definitions using absurd idioms.

Setup

- Each round, every player receives a different idiom.
- Set a timer for 4 minutes.
- Each player must write:
 - 2-3 example phrases using their idiom in context.
 - 1 definition or interpretation of what they believe their idiom means.

Tip: Don't overthink it - sometimes flying by the seat of your pants works best!

Round Process

1. Presentation:

Each player shares their phrases and interpretation.

2. Test Your Skills:

All other players have 30 seconds to write down what they think the idiom means.

3. Scoring:

- The Phrasemaker (player who shared the idiom) earns 1 point for each player who guesses their intended definition.
- Players who correctly guess The Phrasemaker's definition earn 1 point each.

Lightning Rounds

When any player reaches 15 points, enter Lightning Mode:

- Only 1 minute to write phrases and interpretations.

Time flies when you're having fun! Don't blink or you'll miss it!

Interpret That Idiom! Rule Sheet

A game of nonsense, creativity, and wildly incorrect guesses.

Bonus Scoring

- Best Phrase: 1 bonus point
- Funniest Interpretation: 1 bonus point
- You cannot vote for yourself - no tooting your own horn!

Double Trouble: Win all bonus categories? Earn 3 bonus points total!

Winning the Game

The first player to reach 21 points wins!